BIBLE SURVEY SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS PRAYER REQUESTS

AUGUST 4

- UPDATE: Jane Pickler, wife of a friend of Dr. Callis, continues to need our prayers as she had 6 chemo treatments but no change in the size of the tumor. She will need 2 more treatments and will begin radiation in 6 weeks. They remain optimistic as Jane has no pain and the cancer has not metastasized.
- UPDATE: Dr. Steyne continues to teach and witness with his family to the people in Africa. Pray for the ministry and their health.
- UPDATE: Shali Nelson, Dolores and Joe Hill's son-in-law's sister, started to lose weight and they are continuing with her treatments for bone cancer.
- UPDATE: Shirley Connell is feeling much better with less back and hip pain after some injections.
- UPDATE: John Hooker is at Rice Estates for rehab after falling and having surgery for a broken hip.
- UPDATE: Margaret Bass will be staying in Charleston at MUSC for a least 6 more weeks. She needs lots of prayers for complete healing. Let's flood her with cards and well wishes. Her address for cards is:

MUSC-Main Campus
169 Ashley Avenue
Room 221-M. Bass
Charleston, SC 29425

- UPDATE: Francis Eveleigh has a very serious lung disease for which there is no cure. He will begin pulmonary rehab on August 6 which should help with his breathing and expanding his lungs.
- UPDATE: Diane Kickey is home and doing PT. She will be fitted with a prosthesis when internal healing has taken place.
- Barbara Anderson asks prayer for an outpatient procedure she is having on Monday at LMC.
- Don Daniels, Linda Daniels' husband, had gallbladder surgery last Tuesday. Pray for healing and a quick recovery.
- Pray for Pete Stokes, a friend of Lyn Burkholder's, whose son Carl passed away.

JULY 28

- SYMPATHY: We express our sympathy to Mike (Barbara) Hicks and Elizabeth Gabbard in the passing of their mother, Rae Nell Hicks. She had a stroke on Wednesday and passed away on Saturday. Please remember the family.

- PRAISE: Barbara Schanck is home after having surgery where they put cement in her back after a fall she had in March. She is praising God.
- UPDATE: Annie Eveleigh said prayers are working and Francis' oxygen levels are improving. She said the Lord had intervened and their consultation at MUSC was moved up to July 29.
- UPDATE: Haley Spears is a 15 year old who was diagnosed with lymphoma. Her last test showed no cancer. Please pray it stays that way. She will continue with chemo and radiation treatments as a precaution.
- UPDATE: Jack Walters, Ellen Boylston's brother, is home after completing his radiation treatments for prostate cancer at MD Anderson and rang the bell. The family thanks everyone for their prayers.
- UPDATE: Judi Schmiedeker will have back surgery at LMC on August 7. Pray the surgery will alleviate her pain.
- UPDATE: Maxine McKissick fell last week. No broken bones but her face is bruised. Pray for healing.
- John Hooker fell last week and fractured his hip. He had surgery on Thursday at LMC. Pray for his recovery.
- Margaret Bass was admitted to MUSC last Thursday to begin 3 new IV meds in addition to the 5 oral and inhalant meds she is already on for the bacteria in her lungs. When she is released this week she will be sent to a rehab facility in Columbia for 6 weeks to continue the intense treatment. She needs prayers that these meds will work and kill this bacteria without any bad side effects.

JULY 21

- PRAISE: VBS had over 300 attend with 100 volunteers and 21 decisions for Christ.
- PRAISE: Wally Wells, Mary Wells' brother-in-law, saw the oncologist on the 15th and he saw no sign of cancer.
- PRAISE: Brenda Palmer, Mary Wells' daughter, has diabetes. She is no longer on insulin because it was bringing her blood sugar levels too low. She is doing well at this time.
- PRAISE: Marie Isert is at Still Hopes for rehab and doing much better after falling and breaking her hip.
- UPDATE: Barbara Schanck will have Kryphoplasty (cement in her back) on July 24 at LMC. Pray this will alleviate her back pain. She will have PT later.
- UPDATE: Myree Steele asks for continued prayers for her sister, Ann Griffith, whose husband passed away on July 5.
- UPDATE: Myree Steele asks prayer for Mark Reilly, Ellen-
