Wedding Guide

“For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother, and be joined to his wife; and they shall become one flesh.”

Genesis 2:24

Congratulations!

We at First Baptist Church, Columbia are excited to share in this time of planning for your Christ-centered wedding. This booklet is provided to inform you of our church's policies regarding Christian marriage in the facilities of First Baptist Church, Columbia ("FBCC"). Whether you are simply inquiring as to the church's availability, or are sure you wish to be married here, please read this material before developing substantial plans. Additionally, you need to be aware of and review the church's Facility Use Policy ("the Policy"); it governs and describes conditions for the use of facilities of FBCC. The Policy in its entirety is applicable to Weddings, as well as other facility uses. The Policy describes special requirements related to Weddings, the Minister who will perform the ceremony, and required Pre-Marital Counseling. In order to utilize portions of the church as described herein, Bride and Groom will need to complete and electronically sign the Church Facility Reservation Request and Agreement through the link provided by the Wedding Scheduler., Natalie Amick.

Christian Marriage

Marriage is a sacred union established by God Himself in creation. Marriage is not to be taken lightly. Jesus said in Mark 10:6-9, “But at the beginning of creation God made them male and female. For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh. So they are no longer two, but one. Therefore what God has joined together, let man not separate.”

The Baptist Faith and Message in section 18 (XVIII) states, “Marriage is the uniting of one man and one woman in covenant commitment for a lifetime. It is God’s unique gift to reveal the union between Christ and His church and to provide the man and the woman in marriage the framework for intimate companionship, the channel of sexual expression to biblical standards, and the means for procreation of the human race.”

Preparing for your Christ-Centered Marriage & Ceremony

Many details must be worked out in preparation for your wedding. A wedding is a major event in the lives of those involved and should be a memorable occasion. A wedding ceremony is the beginning of a marriage and is over in a few hours, while marriage is a lifetime commitment. We are committed to assisting you in preparation for your wedding, and also in preparing for your marriage.

Rehearsals will last a maximum of 1 1/2 hours. Please be respectful of everyone's time by starting and ending your rehearsal on time.

Your rental fees include the presence of a security guard at your rehearsal.

You and your director should have the details worked out prior to the rehearsal in order for it to run smoothly and efficiently. For that reason, it is strongly suggested that you meet with your director at the church during normal business hours prior to your wedding date.

Premarital Counseling

The couple is responsible for contacting the officiating minister to schedule counseling sessions.

For a wedding or wedding reception to be performed at First Baptist Church, Columbia, a Minister of the Gospel on staff of the Church must officiate, and the Bride and Groom must comply with the Minister's requirement(s) for pre-marital counseling, etc. In addition to premarital classes offered by FBCC, premarital counseling with the officiating minister is required. The couple is responsible for contacting the minister to schedule counseling. Upon request, a minister from another church may be permitted to officiate or assist in a wedding at FBCC, but only with approval of a Minister on staff at FBCC. If you choose to have a Baptist minister other than someone from FBCC perform your wedding ceremony, we ask that he assume the responsibility for premarital counseling and write a brief letter stating his acceptance of that responsibility. Any exceptions to the terms of this paragraph must be prior approved by a Minister on staff at FBCC.

Ministers may forward their letter(s) to:

Natalie Amick
1306 Hampton Street
Columbia, SC 29201

Or by email at natalieamick@fbccola.com

Wedding Decorations

The bride should inform her decorator of the church guidelines concerning wedding decorations. We ask that decorators not use nails, tacks, screws or tape on the walls, furniture or pews. Only wrapped wire, chenille stems or ribbon that will not mar or stain may be used to fasten bows to pews or other furniture.

All flower arrangements must be pre-arranged offsite before delivery to the premises.

No decorations should be placed on or behind the choir rail or on the stairs.

Aisle cloths or rose petals are not allowed to be used, although you may use silk rose petals. If rose petals are dropped by your flower girl, it is the wedding party's responsibility to pick them up following the ceremony as well as removing all other flowers and decorations. An additional $50 fee will be added if these items are not removed before the building is vacated.

If the date is open, your flowers may be left in the sanctuary or placed in the Foyer for Sunday services. To make these arrangements call, Tara Freeman (803) 343-8540. Tara will be happy to coordinate the details for you. If you wish, she will make arrangements to have your flowers distributed to homebound members following the Sunday worship services.

The church has several items available at a nominal charge. See list of items and fees on page 9.

Music

In planning your wedding music, please remember that a church wedding is a worship service, please submit your selections to the wedding coordinator, Natalie Amick, three (3) months in advance for approval. The approved music selections list is located on pages 22-24 of this guide. Your FBC Wedding Director will assist you in hiring an FBC approved pianist/organist.

We do not allow outside organists.

Sound

A sound technician is necessary for all weddings. He will be responsible for setting up microphones before your rehearsal and operating the sound system during the wedding. He will be present for the rehearsal, as well as the wedding.

You will be contacted by your FBC wedding director to find out your sound requirements, such as number of microphones, microphone placement, music stands and any other needs.

An audio recording will be made of your ceremony in either Boyce Chapel or the Sanctuary and an audio file will be emailed to you upon request.

Photography

At no time during the ceremony will the photographer or videographer enter the altar area. Pictures should be taken from the back of the Chapel or the Sound Booth in the balcony.

Photographers will dress in all black, appropriate wedding attire. No shorts, tank tops or strapless tops are allowed. Photographers should act with discretion at all weddings.

We require that all photographers and/ videographers electronically sign our Photography/Videography guidelines. A link will be provided by the Wedding Scheduler.

Flash pictures may not be taken during the ceremony.

Photographers should be encouraged to expedite their activities following the wedding ceremony in order to get the wedding party to the reception. In general, photographers should be able to obtain quality pictures within 30 minutes immediately following the ceremony.

Videography is allowed, provided the equipment does not distract from the ceremony, impede the movement of a guest or damage the facilities. The videographer must remain stationary during the ceremony. Videotaping must be done without the addition of special lighting.

If you would like to have your bridal portraits taken at the church, please contact Tara Freeman at (803)-343-8540 to schedule a time.
